Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The Examiner and Applicant's representative reviewed claim 1 in order to overcome the applied 112 rejection. The Examiner also proposed claim language to place claim 21 in condition for allowance. Specifically, the Examiner recommended the claim be rewritten to include inserting a portable data carrier into a terminal, receiving a transaction request by the terminal, determining that the terminal is unable to fulfill the request, forming a start sequence by the terminal wherein the start sequence comprises card data read from the inserted portable data carrier, requested transaction information and information indicating that the terminal lacks the functionality to fulfill the requested transaction, encrypting the start request and transmitting the encrypted start sequence to a node computer, decrypting the encrypted start sequence by the node computer, and authenticating the requested transaction and determining that the terminal lacks functionality for fulfilling the requested transaction based on the decrypted start sequence, retrieving a software application that enables the terminal to fulfill the transaction and transmitting the application to the terminal, receiving the application by the terminal and fulfilling the the requested transaction using the application, the node computer and the portable data carrier. .
